Dear Mike,

Poultry Catching and Handling

I am writing further to my letter of 23 June where I informed you of my intention to consent to the UK Government making regulations to provide the poultry industry, and their associated catching companies, with clarity on the legal requirements that apply to the catching of poultry during transport operations.

I have now given my consent to the UK Government to make The Welfare of Animals (Transport) (Amendment) Regulations 2025 (“the Regulations”). I have issued a Written Statement which can be found at: <https://laiddocuments.senedd.wales/ws-ld17280-en.pdf>

The Regulations amend assimilated Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 on the protection of animals during transport and related operations to exempt chickens, and turkeys weighing 5 kg and less, from the prohibition on the lifting of animals by their legs. When chickens, and turkeys weighing 5 kg and less, are caught by the legs, they must be caught, lifted and carried by two legs (not by one leg). For turkeys weighing more than 5 kg it is prohibited to lift or carry them in an inverted position, whether by holding the legs or otherwise. The Regulations were laid before the UK Parliament, using the negative procedure, on 1 July and are scheduled to come into force on 22 July 2025.

I am copying this letter to Andrew RT Davies MS, Chair of the Economy, Trade and Rural Affairs Committee

Yours sincerely

04 July 2025

Dear Mike,

The reporting of inter-governmental meetings

At the last session of the Scrutiny of the First Minister Committee ('the Committee') on 28 March 2025, the Committee focussed on 'Inter-governmental Relations and Workings'. Following that session, the Committee wrote to the First Minister to clarify what the Government was doing to speed up the process of reporting on inter-governmental meetings, so that information is available as quickly as possible to support the scrutiny work of Committees.

The Committee has since received a reply from the First Minister, and would like to draw your attention to the response provided to question 2 in the annex, given the Inter-Institutional Relations Agreement that exists between the Senedd and the Welsh Government - and the role of the Legislation, Justice and Constitution Committee in monitoring its implementation.

Yours sincerely

David Rees MS

Chair, Committee for the Scrutiny of the First Minister
