Dyslexia and Schools: Working Together to Make a Difference.

All pupils in Wales need support to develop their literacy skills, and it is essential that young people with dyslexia have access to the appropriate assessment, intervention and additional support they will need during their schooldays. The way in which teachers apply their skills, methods and competencies to young people with dyslexia is crucial and can make a huge difference to a child's life-chances.

The Assembly will sit again in Plenary at 13:30, Tuesday, 25 September 2012
