1 Inquiry into the Welsh Government's delivery of the Woodlands for Wales Strategy – summary of written evidence

In accordance with Standing Order 17.22, the Committee agreed to elect a temporary Chair. Members agreed that David Melding would chair this meeting and that the role of Chair of the Committee will rotate between the party groups represented on the Committee until a permanent Chair is appointed.

Members considered the evidence received in response to the consultation on the Welsh Government's delivery of the Woodlands for Wales Strategy and agreed a schedule of oral witnesses.

2 Discussion of draft report on the inquiry into Bovine TB in Wales

Members considered and agreed the draft report and agreed to publish it in May.

3 Paper to note

3.1 Letter from the Chair of the External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

Members considered the letter on the impact of the Great Repeal Bill and agreed to respond to the Chair of the External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee. The Committee's response will set out its initial thinking on this matter and the implications of Brexit, particularly in reference to the Committee's recent report on the future of land management in Wales.
