Technical Scrutiny

No points are identified for reporting under Standing Order 21.2 in respect of this instrument

Merits Scrutiny

The following points are identified for reporting under Standing Order 21.3 (ii) in respect of this instrument - that it gives rise to issues of public policy likely to be of interest to the Assembly

- In November 2010, the Children and Young People Committee of the third Assembly published the report of its Inquiry into 'safe places to play and hang out'. In the report's first recommendation, the Committee urged the Welsh Government:

"...to complete its review of the standards and guidance for play at the earliest opportunity.... The guidance should include a clear definition of 'play' that includes both structured and free play.... [Our emphasis]."

- The Welsh Government subsequently accepted the Committee's recommendation and made clear that:

"Greater clarification will be provided on the meaning of 'play' and the term will be sufficiently broad to include both 'structured' and 'free play'."

- Paragraph 8.2 of the Explanatory Memorandum (EM) refers to the Welsh Government consultation on the draft regulations and indicates that a significant proportion (as many as 56%) of those responding may want greater clarity in the regulations, and were “primarily concerned about the relation between freely chosen play and adult led recreational activities.”
- The EM states that ‘the summary report responds to this concern in more detail’, that “the Regulations and the Statutory Guidance have been amended accordingly” and that “A summary of the amendments...has been made available on the Welsh Government’s web site.”
- Unfortunately, as of 18 October 2012, we have been unable to source the summary report on the Welsh Government website. It is, therefore, not clear whether the Welsh Government has fully addressed the recommendation in the Children and Young People’s Report or the concerns raised by respondents to the consultation on the draft regulations.
