

Sir Wyn Williams
President of Welsh Tribunals

22 July 2020

Dear Sir Wyn

Inquiry into Making Justice work in Wales

Thank you very much for attending our meeting on 13 July as part of our inquiry into Making Justice work in Wales and, in so doing, participating in the first evidence session of its kind in relation to the formal scrutiny of justice matters in the Senedd.

There were a number of issues that we were not able to cover and other issues which you indicated you wished to consider further. I would be grateful therefore if you could respond to the questions raised below:

1. How should the Senedd scrutinise the administration of the Welsh Tribunals and devolved justice functions in Wales?
2. How might the Senedd engage with the Welsh Tribunals in the development of their role and the development of new administrative law?
3. What are the reasons for the 'significant overspend' in 2019-20 that was referred to in your second annual report?
4. What are your views on the level of data and information on spending and performance included in the annual reports for each tribunal?
5. What further observations, if any, would you like to make regarding external input on the preparation of tribunal annual reports? [See paragraphs 97-98 of the meeting transcript].
6. What further observations, if any, would you to make regarding the collection of specific Welsh data? [See paragraphs 120 and 128 of the meeting transcript].
