28 November 2022

Dear Jayne and Russell,

On Thursday 24 November we took evidence on the effects cost of living pressures are having on skills, particularly focusing on the Young Persons Guarantee. As part of this we heard evidence which may be relevant to your Committees ongoing work:

- Children Young People and Education Committee – Services for care experienced children: exploring radical reform and Mental Health support in Higher Education.
- Health and Social Care Committee – Mental health inequalities.

I would like to draw your attention to the transcript.

I am intending to write to the Minister for Economy following the session, and we will also raise some of the issues covered with him in our general scrutiny session scheduled for 7 December. I will copy you into my letter to the Minister.
