Services for care experienced children: exploring radical reform

Dear Gillian,

As you are aware, the Children, Young People and Education Committee is conducting an inquiry into services for care experienced children. The aim of our work is to identify the priority areas where policy change is needed to make the biggest difference to the lives of the children and young people who experience the care system in Wales, focusing on:

- Before care: Safely reducing the number of children in the care system
- In care: Quality services and support children in care
- After care: On-going support when young people leave care

We are currently taking evidence from a range of stakeholders to inform our work looking at what Welsh Government is doing to deliver its commitment in the Programme for Government to “explore radical reform of current services for children looked after and care leavers”.

We have already met extensively with those with direct experience of the system: birth parents, children currently experiencing care and young people who have left the system.

We have been struck by the significant issues that have already been raised with us which are relevant to the remit of Care Inspectorate Wales. We have also considered with interest your latest Annual Report 2021-22 and the evidence you have to a recent meeting of the Health and Social Care Committee, which, as you know, I attended on behalf of the Children, Young People and Education Committee.
