SCME27 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Nick Baker

- There is no need to expand the current sennydd , already hideously expensive in a time of cost of living crisis
- The money would be far better spent investing in our crumbling NHS
- Baffling money wasted on compulsory purchases for M4 relief road , appalling cost control on the entire Heads of valley project , for next to no gain . This would be another vanity project at best , at worst an underhanded method of installing unelected individuals as an obvious act of nepotism / cronyism.
- This change , like any other massive change should be opened to a country wide referendum, not hidden away in a largely unseen manifesto with a couple of vague lines , or a consultation of 1000 people (as we've seen in previous schemes that have no integrity in consultation or trial).

I'm happy to expand further but I assume this feedback will be largely ignored , like the Welsh electorate seem to be currently .

Many thanks

Nick Baker
