SCME48 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Paul Rabone

I must strongly object to the reform of the senedd. My reasons are outlined below.

1. 60 are ample. you represent an average of 50k of population. compare that to MPs who on average represent 97k of UK population.
2. Wales is short of money yet you feel 36 extra is more important than lives that could be saved with that money.
3. You want to bring in an unfair system of voting. .
4. It is the Senedd that squander money. This would be another perfect example
5. if you feel 60 is not enough then the job is not for you.. All members who feel like this should resign and allow someone who is capable of doing the job a chance to represent their constituents.

My comments above are from a reply I received from [a Member of the Senedd]. She strongly believes she is incapable of doing the job she was elected for as she strongly believes she needs the help of 36 extra. she should resign. As she stated to me. 20mph was in the manifesto and we voted for it. Well she took on the role at 60. She is being hypocritical to tell me I must accept something I knew about but she can change something she knew about.
