SCME72 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Lynne Bond

I am writing to you as a Welsh voter who has lived in my country for 69 years and someone who loves their country. However on reading the plans that the first minister has to reform the Senedd , I am incensed at the absolutely diabolical plan you have to take more power for yourselves and leave your people with little or no say in how our country is being run. This is simply not democratic, not fair and not right. We are already seeing how little members of the senedd understand or care about the people of Wales with the introduction of a default 20 miles an hour speed limit which has driven over 45000 people to add their signatures to a petition to rescind the law! More people than actually voted for labour in the last election. A petition that you have chosen to ignore. If you press on with your plans to introduce this undemocratic bill you WILL be relegated to the third political party in Wales and become no more than a bad memory here. It's time you started listening to the people who pay your wages or ignore us at your peril.

Regards

Lynne Bond
