SCME298 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Mark Steven

The way Wales is being run by the Welsh Labour government the last thing we need are more people who haven't got an earthly clue on how to run a country. At an estimated cost of £120,000,000 to include these extra members at a time the WAG is claiming poverty once again is absolutely deplorable, when the NHS is falling apart, reliable public transport is non-existent also other major services being cut back to the bone. To add insult to injury, this government has now implemented pretty much a 20mph blanket coverage of all roads in Wales which inevitably is going to negatively affect business coming into Wales including tourism!
