SCME379 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Christine Davidson

I feel any major changes as important and costly as this should be put to the people to decide

At this time anything that impacts costs should be looked at and justified against the already massive overspend wales is in and the situation of services such as nhs ,travel ,education etc which are all in dire straits

Any further increase in senedd costs both in wages and expenses is unjustified and an insult to ordinary citizens who are struggling to meet the needs of their families and ever rising living costs

I do NOT feel that these proposals are creditable and or justifiable given the situation wales finds it's self in at the present time
