SCME398 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Richard Lung

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Senedd Cymru (Members and Elections) Bill is a classic and instructive case of the arrogance and abuse of power from a party leadership that has been in unchallenged power for too long. It is as if all the expert advice, from people who know better than you do, had never been, from the Richard report onward, the Sunderland report, the McAllister report, the expert panel, and other bodies... all of whom recommended the single transferable vote that would have given an opportunity for voters to unite Wales, in their preferred way, transcending party lines with a transferable vote.

Increasing the power of the state to some 102 Members and minimising the power of the electorate with a closed party list is the big government hubris of a partisan tribalism that owes more to the old Adam than a workable future.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Lung.
