Ymateb gan Unigolyn | Evidence from Individual

What are your views on the general principles of the Bill and the need for legislation to deliver the Welsh Government's stated policy objective (to make the Senedd a more effective legislature by ensuring it is broadly representative of the gender make-up of the population)?

In principal a good idea. However have you thought of men who will then self identity as women. What's the plan for that. Women are under attack in sport and everywhere else.

What are your views on the system of enforcement and potential sanctions for non-compliance proposed in the Bill?

Not in favour of this smacks of Nazi

Are there any potential barriers to the implementation of the Bill's provisions? If so, what are they, and are they adequately taken into account in the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum and Regulatory Impact Assessment?

Men posing as women

Are any unintended consequences likely to arise from the Bill?

Senedd will not know how to deal with the problem and support transsexuals over women

What are your views on the Welsh Government's assessment of the financial and other impacts of the Bill?

As usual the taxpayers money will e wasted regardless

What are your views on the balance between the information contained on the face of the Bill and what is left to subordinate legislation? Are the powers for Welsh Ministers to make subordinate legislation appropriate?

No. The Welsh government does not represent the opinions of Welsh people or people who live in Wales. It has too many self Grandiose policies as it it.

Do you have any views on matters relating to the legislative competence of the Senedd including compatibility with the European Convention on Human Rights?

They have no competence or right to assert themselves over the population. A referendum should have been taken over Welsh speaking schools and wasting probably a billion on changing every road sign - money that could have been allotted to care and existing roads

Do you have any views on matters related to the quality of the legislation, or to the constitutional or other implications of the Bill?

Self aggrandising tiny proportion of the population are deciding our life. It's frightening.

Are there any other issues that you would like to raise about the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum or any related matters?

Yes. It should be fully explained to voters

Anything else?

How much will it cost?

Should 13 year old be able to have an opinion? They will vote as their parents instruct. A building brick in a solid wall for Labour. Not fooled by any of you
