What are your views on the general principles of the Bill and the need for legislation to deliver the Welsh Government's stated policy objective (to make the Senedd a more effective legislature by ensuring it is broadly representative of the gender make-up of the population)?

Gender is a misconceived invention. Self ID does nothing to address sex imbalance. For example, you could have 4 men, two

Of whom pretend to be women, meets the gender balance requirement. It's bollocks!

What are your views on the system of enforcement and potential sanctions for non-compliance proposed in the Bill?

It's a stupid idea. Sexist misogynistic and unacceptable. People should be prevented from calling themselves a woman if they are a man, or vice versa. It's legalised lying!

Are there any potential barriers to the implementation of the Bill's provisions? If so, what are they, and are they adequately taken into account in the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum and Regulatory Impact Assessment?

It's a stupid, sexist idea. STOP IT!

Are any unintended consequences likely to arise from the Bill?

What are your views on the Welsh Government's assessment of the financial and other impacts of the Bill?

It's mad. Fuels culture wars and division.

What are your views on the balance between the information contained on the face of the Bill and what is left to subordinate legislation? Are the powers for Welsh Ministers to make subordinate legislation appropriate?

All needs to be primary legislation otherwise it avoids proper scrutiny

Do you have any views on matters relating to the legislative competence of the Senedd including compatibility with the European Convention on Human Rights?

It is incompatible. Those tight thinking people who have their rights to properly regard men pretending to be women as men are having their rights undermined

Do you have any views on matters related to the quality of the legislation, or to the constitutional or other implications of the Bill?

It's shit

Are there any other issues that you would like to raise about the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum or any related matters?

Bin the bill

Anything else?
