Ymateb gan Unigolyn | Evidence from Individual

What are your views on the general principles of the Bill and the need for legislation to deliver the Welsh Government's stated policy objective (to make the Senedd a more effective legislature by ensuring it is broadly representative of the gender make-up of the population)?

Gender is a contested and unclear construct. Not included in the Equality Act. Sex is and I could see the benefits if you were making it more representative of each sex

What are your views on the system of enforcement and potential sanctions for non-compliance proposed in the Bill?

None

Are there any potential barriers to the implementation of the Bill's provisions? If so, what are they, and are they adequately taken into account in the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum and Regulatory Impact Assessment?

Yes. You are going to create multiple problems by trying to introduce self ID in this way. And make it very difficult for labour to get elected.

Are any unintended consequences likely to arise from the Bill?

Yes. Women's rights generally across uk. Furthermore If men can say they're women to help themselves it causes mass anger. Look at the SNP in Scotland and self id.

What are your views on the Welsh Government's assessment of the financial and other impacts of the Bill?

None

What are your views on the balance between the information contained on the face of the Bill and what is left to subordinate legislation? Are the powers for Welsh Ministers to make subordinate legislation appropriate?

Letting men say they're women is totally wrong

Do you have any views on matters relating to the legislative competence of the Senedd including compatibility with the European Convention on Human Rights?

Yes. This will affect all uk and is outside your remit. And you seem to be ignoring women's human rights. Forcing other people to accept something that is not true is sn abuse of power

Do you have any views on matters related to the quality of the legislation, or to the constitutional or other implications of the Bill?

No

Are there any other issues that you would like to raise about the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum or any related matters?

Anything else?

Respect women.Understand sex and biology. Define your terms when they are contested. What does gender really mean?
