Bil Senedd Cymru (Rhestrau Ymgeiswyr Etholiadol) | Senedd Cymru (Electoral Candidate Lists) Bill

Ymateb gan Unigolyn | Evidence from Individual

What are your views on the general principles of the Bill and the need for legislation to deliver the Welsh Government's stated policy objective (to make the Senedd a more effective legislature by ensuring it is broadly representative of the gender make-up of the population)?

Gender is meaningless. If you mean sex, then say sex to ensure a fair representation of women, meaning adult human females.

What are your views on the system of enforcement and potential sanctions for non-compliance proposed in the Bill?

You are unclear about sex and gender, so I am unclear what you understand a woman to mean. A woman is an adult human female and we should be included in decisions about everything affecting women.

Are there any potential barriers to the implementation of the Bill's provisions? If so, what are they, and are they adequately taken into account in the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum and Regulatory Impact Assessment?

Are any unintended consequences likely to arise from the Bill?

If you include men pretending they are women - not one of them believes it - then it is all a monstrous lie and will be used to put men in positions meant for women in a deliberate attempt to install gender ideology everywhere. It will also be used to lie, gaslight and silence women. It is already happening because of men's fetishistic desire to larp as women.

What are your views on the Welsh Government's assessment of the financial and other impacts of the Bill?

It is driven by ideological capture and lies. Men aren't women, not even men with internalised homophobia, and not men pretending they have lady souls stuck in their man heads.

What are your views on the balance between the information contained on the face of the Bill and what is left to subordinate legislation? Are the powers for Welsh Ministers to make subordinate legislation appropriate?

Do you have any views on matters relating to the legislative competence of the Senedd including compatibility with the European Convention on Human Rights?

If gender and sex are confused and conflated, women's and girls' rights end up bottom of the heap. The misogyny stinks for miles. If you want to breach women's human rights, why not put men in their sports, spaces and services and terrorise women in women's prisons by forcing the cruel and unusual punishment of putting dangerous men in there? Utterly monstrous.

Do you have any views on matters related to the quality of the legislation, or to the constitutional or other implications of the Bill?

If you conflate sex and gender, women lose out and are erased.

Are there any other issues that you would like to raise about the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum or any related matters?

Men aren't women.

Anything else?

Men aren't women.
