Local Government Finance (Wales) Bill

[AS PASSED]

An Act of Senedd Cymru to make provision about non-domestic rating and council tax.

Having been passed by Senedd Cymru and having received the assent of His Majesty, it is enacted as follows:

PART 1

NON-DOMESTIC RATING

Introduction

1 Overview of Part 1

- (1) This Part amends the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (c. 41) (“the 1988 Act”), in relation to Wales, as follows.
- (2) Part 3 of the 1988 Act makes provision about non-domestic rating. Sections 2 and 3 insert new sections 41ZA and 52ZA into the 1988 Act, restating provision about the compilation of local and central non-domestic rating lists for Wales. The lists contain details of hereditaments and their rateable values. Sections 2 and 3 shorten the interval between revaluation years from 5 to 3 years. Section 4 inserts a power into the 1988 Act for the Welsh Ministers to alter that interval or the date of a future revaluation year by regulations.
- (3) Schedules 4ZA, 4ZB and 5A to the 1988 Act set out reliefs from non-domestic rating for certain descriptions of hereditaments. Section 5 inserts provision into each of these Schedules for the Welsh Ministers to amend or withdraw existing reliefs and to confer new reliefs by regulations.
- (4) Paragraph 2 of Schedule 4ZB to the 1988 Act provides for full relief from non-domestic rating where a hereditament is unoccupied, the ratepayer is a charity or a registered club and where conditions as to the hereditament’s next use are met. Section 6 restates this paragraph and adds to the conditions that must be met in order for the relief to apply.
- (5) Section 46A of the 1988 Act provides for new buildings to be deemed to have been completed on a certain day (and therefore eligible for inclusion on a local or central non-domestic rating list). Section 7 amends that section (by expanding the definition of a new building) so that it applies to existing buildings that have undergone alterations where those buildings are comprised in hereditaments that have been removed from a list.
- (6) Section 47 of the 1988 Act enables a billing authority to grant or vary relief from non-domestic rating subject to conditions set out in the section. Section 8 amends that section so as to remove the time limit on making decisions granting or varying relief.

- (7) Schedule 5 to the 1988 Act makes provision about hereditaments that are exempt from non-domestic rating and includes a limited power for the Welsh Ministers to confer additional exemptions. Section 9 replaces that power with an unqualified power for the Welsh Ministers to amend or withdraw existing exemptions and to create new exemptions by regulations.
- (8) Schedule 7 to the 1988 Act makes provision in connection with the setting of multipliers used to calculate non-domestic rating. Section 10 inserts a new power for the Welsh Ministers to provide for differential multipliers in respect of descriptions of hereditaments to be specified in regulations. Section 11 amends the formulas in Schedules 4ZA, 4ZB and 5A to the 1988 Act for calculating non-domestic rating in relation to hereditaments in Wales so as to reflect the changes made by section 10 in relation to the setting of differential multipliers.
- (9) Schedule 9 to the 1988 Act imposes duties on ratepayers and potential ratepayers to notify valuation officers of information that relates to their liability to a non-domestic rate in respect of a hereditament, and provides for the enforcement of the duties (through civil and criminal penalties). Section 12 amends Schedule 9 so that these provisions apply in relation to hereditaments in Wales.
- (10) Section 13 inserts sections 63F to 63M into the 1988 Act. The new sections make provision about counteracting advantages obtained from artificial non-domestic rating avoidance arrangements. They include provision enabling the Welsh Ministers to make regulations that provide that an arrangement of a specified type is artificial (unless, in accordance with the regulations, a billing authority or the Welsh Ministers determine otherwise in a particular case); provision requiring billing authorities (or the Welsh Ministers) to treat persons as liable to pay the chargeable amounts that would have been, or would be, payable in the absence of an artificial non-domestic rating avoidance arrangement; provision for a review and appeals process; provision enabling the Welsh Ministers to make regulations imposing financial penalties where a person who is treated as liable fails to pay an amount due.
- (11) Section 14 inserts section 143A into the 1988 Act. Section 143A makes provision about the powers of the Welsh Ministers to make orders and regulations under the Act (restating provisions of section 143 of the 1988 Act in so far as they apply in respect of the powers of the Welsh Ministers).

NON-DOMESTIC RATING MULTIPLIERS: WALES

Introduction

A13 This Part of this Schedule has effect to determine, in relation to Wales, the non-domestic rating multiplier for each chargeable financial year.

Calculation of non-domestic rating multiplier: revaluation years

A14 (1) The non-domestic rating multiplier for a revaluation year is to be calculated in accordance with the formula –

$$\frac{AxBxD}{CxE.}$$

- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) –
- (a) “A” is the non-domestic rating multiplier for the financial year preceding the year concerned;
 - (b) “B” is the consumer prices index for September of the financial year preceding the year concerned;
 - (c) “C” is –
 - (i) the consumer prices index for September of the financial year which precedes that preceding the year concerned, or
 - (ii) where the base month for the consumer prices index for September of the financial year which precedes that preceding the year concerned (the first year) differs from that for the index for September of the year which precedes the year concerned (the second year), the figure which the Welsh Ministers calculate would have been the consumer prices index for September of the first year if the base month for that index had been the same as the base month for the index for September of the second year;
 - (d) “D” is the number of whole pounds in the Welsh Ministers’ estimate of the total of the appropriate rateable values of all appropriate hereditaments, where –
 - (i) appropriate rateable values are those which will be shown in lists for the last day of the financial year preceding the year concerned once all alterations to those lists have been made, and
 - (ii) appropriate hereditaments are those which will be shown in lists for that day once all alterations to those lists have been made;
 - (e) “E” is the number of whole pounds in the Welsh Ministers’ estimate of the total of the appropriate rateable values of all appropriate hereditaments, where –
 - (i) appropriate rateable values are those which will be shown in lists for the first day of the financial year concerned once all alterations to those lists have been made (including rateable values which will be shown in lists for a later day as a result of any alterations of the lists because of the inaccuracy of the lists for that first day), and
 - (ii) appropriate hereditaments are those which will be shown in lists for that first day once all alterations to those lists have been made.
- (3) The Welsh Ministers must make estimates under sub-paragraph (2)(d) and (e) on the basis of information available to them on such date as they determine.

- (4) But this paragraph does not apply for the purposes of –
- (a) Schedules 4ZA and 4ZB, in respect of a hereditament of a description specified in regulations under paragraph A16(1)(a);
 - (b) Schedule 5A, in respect of an amount of a rateable value shown against the name of a designated person in the central non-domestic rating list specified in regulations under paragraph A16(1)(b).

Calculation of non-domestic rating multiplier: other years

A15 (1) The non-domestic rating multiplier for a chargeable financial year other than a revaluation year is –

- (a) the default amount, or
 - (b) if the Welsh Ministers make an adjustment to that amount under sub-paragraph (4), that amount as adjusted.
- (2) The default amount is to be calculated in accordance with the formula –

$$\frac{AxB}{C}.$$

- (3) In sub-paragraph (2), “A”, “B” and “C” have the meanings given in paragraph A14.
- (4) The Welsh Ministers may make an adjustment to the default amount to reflect the extent to which their last estimate of the total mentioned in paragraph A14(2)(d) or (e) appears to them to differ from the actual total.
- (5) But this paragraph does not apply for the purposes of –
- (a) Schedules 4ZA and 4ZB, in respect of a hereditament of a description specified in regulations under paragraph A16(1)(a);
 - (b) Schedule 5A, in respect of an amount of a rateable value shown against the name of a designated person in the central non-domestic rating list specified in regulations under paragraph A16(1)(b).

Calculation of differential multipliers

A16 (1) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations provide that the non-domestic rating multiplier for a chargeable financial year in respect of –

- (a) a description, specified in regulations, of hereditaments on local non-domestic rating lists, or
- (b) an amount (or amounts), of a rateable value shown against the name of a designated person in the central non-domestic rating list, is to be calculated in accordance with the formula –

MxN.

- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) –
 - (a) “M” is the non-domestic rating multiplier for the chargeable financial year under paragraph A14 or A15 (as the case may be);
 - (b) “N” is a number prescribed by the Welsh Ministers in regulations.

*Minor and consequential amendments15 Minor and consequential amendments relating to Part 1

The Schedule makes minor and consequential amendments relating to this Part.

PART 2
COUNCIL TAXIntroduction16 Overview of Part 2

- (1) This Part amends the Local Government Finance Act 1992 (c. 14) (“the 1992 Act”), in relation to Wales, as follows.
- (2) Section 17 restates existing powers of the Welsh Ministers to amend valuation bands of dwellings, and also enables the Welsh Ministers to amend the valuation band used as an average in formulas applied under sections 36 and 47 of the 1992 Act used to calculate the amount of council tax that is payable.
- (3) Section 18(2) and (3) disapplies provisions in sections 6 and 9 of the 1992 Act about the persons who are exempt from being jointly and severally liable to pay council tax in respect of a chargeable dwelling, and replaces them with a power for the Welsh Ministers to prescribe by regulations which persons are to be exempt.
- (4) Section 18(4) and (5) disapplies provisions in section 11 of the 1992 Act for discounts (of percentages specified in section 11 or by order) to be applicable where there is only one resident of a chargeable dwelling (or only one who is not disregarded for the purpose of a discount), or where there is no resident (or all residents are disregarded), and replaces them with –
 - (a) provision for discounts (of amounts prescribed, or calculated in accordance with provision prescribed, by the Welsh Ministers in regulations) to apply where there is only one resident (or only one who is not disregarded for the purpose of a discount), or where all of a dwelling’s residents are disregarded,
 - (b) a power for the Welsh Ministers to provide by regulations that discounts apply where other criteria are met,
 - (c) a power for the Welsh Ministers to make provision about cases where more than one discount applies (including about how much council tax is payable), and
 - (d) a power for the Welsh Ministers to prescribe by regulations classes of dwelling for which a billing authority may determine that a lesser discount, or no discount, applies.

- (5) In consequence –
- (a) section 18(6) repeals section 12 of the 1992 Act, which related to the specific discount that applied where there was no resident, and which included a power for a billing authority to determine that (for classes of dwelling prescribed by the Welsh Ministers) a lesser discount, or no discount, applied;
 - (b) section 18(7) amends section 12A of the 1992 Act so that where a billing authority determines that the amount of council tax payable in respect of long-term empty dwellings is subject to a percentage increase, the authority will no longer disapply the (for Wales, repealed) no-resident discount, and will instead subtract any applicable discount after adding the percentage increase;
 - (c) section 18(8) amends section 12B of the 1992 Act (higher amount for dwellings occupied periodically) in the same ways as section 18(7) amends section 12A.
- (6) Section 18 also disapplies Schedule 1 to the 1992 Act (which, together with section 11(5), made provision about persons disregarded for the purposes of determining whether a discount applies), and replaces it with a power for the Welsh Ministers to prescribe by regulations who is disregarded for the purposes of discount.
- (7) Section 19 –
- (a) changes the power in section 13 of the 1992 Act, that enables the Welsh Ministers to make regulations providing for persons liable to pay council tax to pay a reduced amount in some circumstances, into an obligation to make such regulations,
 - (b) repeals the power in section 13A for the Welsh Ministers to require a person or body to make a council tax reduction scheme and related provisions, and
 - (c) amends section 66(2) of the 1992 Act to add matters prescribed or provided for in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) of section 13 to a list of matters that may not be questioned except by an application for judicial review.
- (8) Section [] replaces the obligations on billing authorities in sections 12A, 12B and 38 of the 1992 Act to publish notices in a newspaper with an obligation to publish those notices electronically, and to make alternative arrangements for those unable to access notices electronically.
- (9) Section 20 changes section 22B of the 1992 Act so that the Welsh Ministers' power to specify the year when new valuation lists must be compiled for billing authorities in Wales cannot be exercised to specify a year later than 2029. It also introduces a requirement for such lists to be compiled in 2030 and every 5 years after that (although the years can be changed, by order, by the Welsh Ministers).
