Carolyn Thomas MS
Chair - Petitions committee

21 October 2025

Dear Carolyn,

I am writing in response to your letter dated 7 October regarding Petition P-06-1520, “Stop all foreign aid payments from the Welsh Government including to ‘Size of Wales’”.

I note the Committee’s decision to close the petition following the response provided by the Cabinet Secretary for Social Justice, Trefnydd and Chief Whip. As the petition raises issues that span multiple ministerial portfolios—including international development, climate change, social justice, financial allocations and the voluntary sector, it was appropriate for the Cabinet Secretary to respond on behalf of the Welsh Government, reflecting a collective position.

As you have noted, the Wales and Africa programme sits within my remit as part of the broader responsibility for international development. I welcome the Committee’s interest in ensuring transparency and accountability in this area and remain committed to supporting its scrutiny of this programme.

Yours sincerely,

Eluned Morgan
