HSC Committee 24 September 2014 - Follow-up inquiry on the contribution of community pharmacy to health services

At the Health and Social Care Committee on 24 September I agreed to confirm in writing the date by which the joint review by the Chief Medical Officer and Public Health Wales of the national smoking cessation service review will be completed.

I can confirm that Public Health Wales, in discussion with Local Health Boards, is currently reviewing the smoking cessation service it provides. The Chief Medical Officer receives regular updates on service changes and the improvements in outcomes which result from those changes. Regular performance management meetings also take place. This is an ongoing and incremental process, which will result in recommendations by the end of January 2015.

Best wishes

Mark Drakeford
