When people can't afford a decent meal or pay for school dinners you propose to expand the Senedd numbers lining your pockets.

The introduction of the 20 mph limit is a massive waste of money that has alienated you government to the tune of over half a million people. The £33 million should should have been used to fund the NHS.

You have lost the trust of the large majority of people who at the end the day vote you in to office.

Wales is becoming the laughing stock. The current first minister has cemented his reputation as a budding dictator with his arrogance.

In the light of current financial cut back to services you come up with multi million pound self serving ideas.

You will never get my vote.

T. G.
