So the country has a massive debt, you will have to make greater cuts, Our roads are a disgrace, our education system is in reverse, the NHS in Wales is a shambles, public transport is a joke , the list goes on but it's ok to pay for additional staff to the tune of millions.

I think the labour party needs to look in the mirror and identify what it stands for. We seem to be in a similar regime to Russia where the politicians dictate to the masses regardless of what the people want.
