These Regulations will replace current fees and charges for the marine licensing system in Wales under the Marine Licensing (Application Fees) (Wales) Regulations 2011.

Under section 67(1)(b) of that Act the appropriate licensing authority may require that an application for a marine licence be accompanied by a fee. For example, regulation 4 and Schedule 1 provide that the fee for determining an application for a licence is either a fixed fee or an amount calculated by multiplying the number of hours worked by £120.
